Abstentions will be considered as present for purposes of establishing a quorum. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will be considered as present for purposes of establishing a quorum but not entitled to vote with respect to that matter.

Tabulation of Votes. Pursuant to the Corporation's By-Laws, the election of directors shall be determined by a plurality of votes cast and the results of all other matters shall be determined by a majority of votes cast affirmatively or negatively, except as may otherwise be required by law.

Solicitation

The cost of soliciting proxies is paid by the Corporation. Officers and other employees of the Corporation, at no additional compensation, may also assist in the solicitation of proxies. Solicitation will be by mail and may be conducted by telephone and personal contact. The Corporation reserves the right to engage a third-party proxy solicitation company to assist in the solicitation of proxies, although the Corporation does not currently intend to do so.

ITEM 1 — ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is responsible for supervising the management of the Corporation. The Board has determined that all of its members, except Vernon J. Nagel, the Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer, have no material relationship with the Corporation, and are therefore independent, based on the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, the categorical standards set forth in the Corporation's Governance Guidelines (available on the Corporation's website at www.acuitybrands.com under "Corporate Governance" and attached hereto as Appendix A), and a finding of no other material relationships.

The members of the Board of Directors are divided into three classes serving staggered three-year terms. Under the Corporation's Governance Guidelines, directors will not be nominated for election after their 72nd birthday and are expected to resign as of the annual meeting following their 72nd birthday. Directors for each class are elected at the annual meeting of stockholders for the year in which the term for their class expires. The terms for three directors of the Corporation expire at this annual meeting and each of these directors is a nominee at the annual meeting. The directors to be elected will hold office for three-year terms expiring at the 2008 annual meeting or until their successors are elected and qualified.

The persons named in the accompanying proxy, or their substitutes, will vote for the election of the nominees listed hereafter, except to the extent authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld. No nominee for election as a director is proposed to be elected pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between the nominee and any other person or persons. All nominees have consented to stand for election at this meeting. If any of the nominees become unable or unwilling to serve, the persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy, or their substitutes, shall have full discretion and authority to vote or refrain from voting for any substitute nominees in accordance with their judgment.

In 2005, the average annual fee paid to nonemployee directors, excluding fees paid to committee chairs, totaled $104,000.

Under the Corporation's Nonemployee Director Deferred Stock Unit Plan, directors are paid one-half of their annual fee in deferred stock units and may elect to receive additional portions of their annual fee, their meeting fees, and chairman fees, if any, in deferred stock units. Under the Plan, nonemployee directors receive a one-time grant of 1,000 deferred stock units upon their election to the Board. The value and return on deferred stock units is equivalent to the value and return on Acuity Brands stock. A director's account is payable in cash, in a lump sum or installments, on or after retirement. There is no other retirement plan for nonemployee directors.

Pursuant to the Acuity Brands, Inc. Nonemployee Directors' Stock Option Plan, stock options for the purchase of 1,500 Acuity Brands shares are granted annually on the day of the annual meeting of stockholders at the fair market value on the grant date. The exercise price of the grants awarded on January 6, 2005 was $27.31 per share, the fair market value on the grant date. The options granted pursuant to the Nonemployee Directors' Stock Option Plan are exercisable after one year, remain exercisable for a period of ten years from the grant date, and expire at the earlier of the expiration date or three years following retirement from the Board.

Directors may participate in the Corporation's matching gift program. Under this program, the Corporation will match charitable contributions up to a total of $5,000 per individual each fiscal year.

Other Information Concerning the Board and its Committees

The Board of Directors has delegated certain functions to the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Governance Committee. The Corporation’s Statement of Responsibilities of the Committees of the Board, which contains each Committee’s charter, is available on the Corporation’s website at www.acuitybrands.com under the heading, “Corporate Governance.” The table below sets forth the current membership of each of the committees:

	Executive	Audit	Compensation	Governance
Vernon J. Nagel	Chairman
Peter C. Browning			X	X
John L. Clendenin	X	Chairman		X

Earnest W. Deavenport, Jr.		X		X
Robert F. McCullough		X		X
Julia B. North			X	X
Ray M. Robinson	X		Chairman	X

During the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, the Board of Directors met eight times. All directors attended at least 75% of the total meetings held by the Board and their respective committees during the fiscal year. The Corporation typically expects that each director will attend the annual meeting of stockholders, absent a valid reason. Eight of the directors serving at the time of last year’s annual meeting of stockholders attended the annual meeting. Mr. Robinson was unable to attend.

At each regular quarterly meeting, the Board of Directors meets without management present. Non-management director sessions are led by the Chairman of the Governance Committee. As indicated on the Corporation’s website at www.acuitybrands.com under “Corporate Governance,” stockholders may communicate directly with the Board of Directors or non-management directors as a group by writing to the Chairman of the Governance Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, Acuity Brands, Inc., 1170 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 2400, Atlanta, Georgia 30309. All communications will be forwarded promptly.

The Executive Committee is authorized to perform all of the powers of the full Board, except the power to amend the By-Laws and except as restricted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. The Executive Committee is called upon in very limited circumstances due to reliance on the other standing committees of the Board and the direct involvement of the entire Board in governance matters. The Committee held one meeting and acted once by unanimous written consent during the 2005 fiscal year.

The Audit Committee is responsible for certain matters pertaining to the auditing, internal control, and financial reporting of the Corporation, as set forth in the Committee’s report below and in its charter, a copy of which is available on the Corporation’s website at www.acuitybrands.com under the heading, “Corporate Governance.” All members of the Committee are independent under the requirements of the SEC and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. In addition, the members of the Committee meet the current independence and financial literacy requirements of the listed company rules of the New York Stock Exchange. At each quarterly meeting, the Audit Committee meets separately with the independent registered public accounting firm, the internal auditors, the corporate compliance officer, and the general counsel, without other management present. The Board has determined that Messrs. Clendenin, Deavenport, and McCullough satisfy the “audit committee financial expert” criteria adopted by the SEC under Section 407 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and that each of them has accounting and related financial management expertise within the meaning of Section 303A of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Committee held eleven meetings during the 2005 fiscal year.

As indicated on the Corporation’s website at www.acuitybrands.com under “Corporate Governance,” stockholders may communicate directly with the Audit Committee regarding the Corporation’s accounting practices, internal controls, or auditing matters by writing to the Chairman of the Governance Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, Acuity Brands, Inc., 1170 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 2400, Atlanta, Georgia 30309. All communications will be forwarded promptly.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for certain matters relating to the evaluation and compensation of the executive officers and nonemployee directors of the Corporation, as set forth in the Committee's report below and in its charter, a copy of which is available on the Corporation's website at www.acuitybrands.com under the heading, "Corporate Governance." At each meeting, the Compensation Committee meets privately with an independent compensation consultant without management present. In 2005, the Compensation Committee initiated a process for evaluating the performance of the independent consultant in relation to the Committee's functions and responsibilities. Each member of this Committee is independent under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and is an outside director under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Committee held seven meetings during the 2005 fiscal year.

The Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing matters pertaining to the composition, organization, and practices of the Board of Directors. The Committee's responsibilities, as set forth in its charter available on the Corporation's website at www.acuitybrands.com under the heading, "Corporate Governance," include recommending the Corporation's Corporate Governance Guidelines, recommending the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, a periodic evaluation of the Board in meeting its corporate governance responsibilities, and recommending to the full Board a slate of directors for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting and candidates to fill any vacancies on the Board as explained in greater detail below under "Director Nominations." Each member of this Committee is independent under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Committee held four meetings during the 2005 fiscal year.

Director Nominations

The Governance Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board a slate of director nominees for the Board to consider recommending to the shareholders, and for recommending to the Board nominees for appointment to fill any Board vacancy. To fulfill these responsibilities, the Committee annually assesses the requirements of the Board and makes recommendations to the Board regarding its size, composition, and structure. In determining whether to nominate an incumbent director for reelection, the Governance Committee evaluates each incumbent director's continued service in light of the current assessment of the Board's requirements, taking into account factors such as evaluations of the incumbent's performance.

When the need to fill a new Board seat or vacancy arises, the Committee proceeds by whatever means it deems appropriate to identify a qualified candidate or candidates, including engaging an outside search firm. The Committee reviews the qualifications of each candidate, including, but not limited to, the candidate's experience, judgment, diversity, and skills in such areas as manufacturing and distribution technologies and accounting or financial management. Final candidates are generally interviewed by one or more Committee members. The Committee makes a recommendation to the Board based on its review, the results of interviews with the candidates, and all other available information. The Board makes the final decision on whether to invite a candidate to join the Board. The Board-approved invitation is extended through the Chair of the Governance Committee and the Chairman of the Board, President, and Chief Executive Officer.

Director Nominations by Stockholders. The Governance Committee will consider recommendations for director nominees from stockholders made in writing and addressed to the attention of the Chairman of the Governance Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, Acuity Brands, Inc., 1170 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 2400, Atlanta, Georgia, 30309. The Governance Committee will consider such recommendations on the same basis as those from other sources. Stockholders making recommendations for director nominees to the Committee should provide the same information required for nominations by stockholders at an annual meeting, as explained below under "Next Annual Meeting — Stockholder Proposals."

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

The Corporation has transactions in the ordinary course of business with unaffiliated corporations and institutions, or their subsidiaries, for which certain nonemployee directors of the Corporation serve as directors or officers. With respect to those companies having common nonemployee directors with the Corporation, management believes the directors have no direct or indirect material interest in transactions in which the Corporation engages with those companies.

Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year

The following table contains information concerning stock options that were granted to the named executive officers during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, as disclosed in the "Summary Compensation Table" above. The Corporation did not award any stock appreciation rights or reprice any stock options during the year.

- (1) Awards to employees in 2005 under the Long-Term Incentive Plan consisted of time-vesting restricted stock of 316,152 shares and stock options to purchase 175,000 shares. Of the total option and restricted shares awarded during 2005, Mr. Morgan's stock option award represented 32.6% of the shares awarded and 16.6% of the estimated value of such awards.

- (2) The options have a ten-year term, subject to earlier termination upon certain events related to termination of employment, and vest in equal annual installments over four years. The Compensation Committee has discretion, subject to limitations in the Long-Term Incentive Plan, to modify the terms of outstanding options, except that no modification can adversely alter or impair any rights or obligations without the Optionee's consent and the Committee does not have the authority to materially modify outstanding options or accept the surrender of outstanding options and grant substitute options or change the exercise price of any outstanding option granted pursuant to the Plan.
- (3) The estimated value calculated under the Black-Scholes model assumes a risk-free rate of return of 4.2%, a dividend yield of 2.3%, an option term of six years, and stock price volatility having a standard deviation of 0.424. The actual value, if any, that Mr. Morgan may realize will depend upon the excess of the stock price over the exercise price on the date the option is exercised; consequently, there is no assurance that the value realized by Mr. Morgan will be at or near the value estimated by the Black-Scholes model.

Aggregated Option Exercises and Fiscal Year-End Option Values

Employment Contracts, Severance Arrangements, and Other Agreements

Pursuant to the Corporation's employment agreement with Mr. Nagel, effective as of January 20, 2004, he became entitled to receive an annual salary of $600,000 upon becoming Chairman and Chief Executive Officer as of September 1, 2004 and a target annual incentive opportunity of 65% of base salary under the Management Compensation and Incentive Plan and related Plan Rules for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2005. The Board subsequently increased Mr. Nagel's target annual incentive opportunity to 75% of base salary for fiscal year 2005. In addition to participation in employee benefit plans and perquisites afforded to executives at his level, continued coverage in the Acuity Brands, Inc. 2002 Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, the Acuity Brands, Inc. Supplemental Deferred Savings Plan, and coverage under the Company's director and officer liability insurance, Mr. Nagel received reimbursement of specified moving expenses in 2005, and is a party to a Severance Agreement and a Severance Protection Agreement as described below. Mr. Nagel's employment agreement also reflects a stock ownership requirement equal to four times his annual base salary level ($2,400,000 based on Mr. Nagel's current base salary), which ownership requirement must be attained by December 31, 2007.

Pursuant to the Corporation's employment agreement with Mr. Morgan effective as of July 29, 2005, he became entitled to receive an initial annual salary of $500,000, a target annual incentive opportunity of 60% of base salary under the Management Compensation and Incentive Plan and related Plan Rules for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2006, and an option to purchase 160,000 shares of Acuity Brands common stock at the fair market value on the grant date. Further, Mr. Morgan would be entitled to a retention bonus payment of $500,000 should the Company name a President other than Mr. Morgan or Mr. Nagel, the Company's current Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer, within the next three years, provided Mr. Morgan remains in the Company's employment for a period of six months following such appointment. In addition to participation in employee benefit plans and perquisites afforded to executives at his level, continued coverage in the Acuity Brands, Inc. 2002 Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, the Acuity Brands, Inc. Supplemental Deferred Savings Plan, and coverage under the Company's director and officer liability insurance, Mr. Morgan is covered under an amended Severance Agreement and an amended Severance Protection Agreement as described below, and is eligible to receive reimbursement of legal expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation and execution of the employment agreement, the stock option award agreement, the severance agreement, and the severance protection agreement.

Pursuant to the Corporation's consulting agreement effective as of September 1, 2005 with Mr. Honeycutt, he will perform certain consulting and advisory services for a period of 14 months following his retirement from the Corporation on or about December 30, 2005, to assist the Company in an orderly transition of the responsibilities he previously performed at Acuity Lighting Group, Inc. and to perform other agreed upon projects and tasks. As payment under the consulting agreement, Mr. Honeycutt is entitled to receive consulting fees payable (1) in a lump sum of $273,154 on December 31, 2005 and (2) in eight substantially equal monthly installments beginning as of July 1, 2006 in the aggregate amount of $364,205. The consulting agreement also provides for the reimbursement of reasonable business expenses in connection with performance of the services and for the continuation of Company-sponsored group healthcare benefits for Mr. Honeycutt and his dependents under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA") for a period of 14 months at a shared cost and an additional 18 months of coverage at Mr. Honeycutt's sole expense. The agreement is subject to the execution of a release and contains restrictive covenants with respect to confidentiality, non-solicitation, and non-competition.

In connection with the spin-off of the Corporation from NSI in November 2001, the Corporation assumed NSI's March 28, 2000 employment agreement with Mr. Heagle. Under the agreement Mr. Heagle received an initial annual base salary of $300,000, reimbursement of relocation expenses and other benefits and perquisites afforded to executives at his level, including annual and long-term incentives, and participation in employee benefit and retirement plans. The severance payment provisions of Mr. Heagle's agreement were amended as described below.

The Corporation has Severance Agreements with the named executive officers. The Severance Agreements with Messrs. Nagel and Morgan provide for (a) monthly severance payments in an amount equal to the executive's then current base salary rate, (b) continuation of healthcare, life insurance, and long-term disability coverage, and (c) outplacement services, each for the severance period of 24 months in the event the executive's employment is terminated by the Corporation, other than voluntary termination or termination for Cause or by the officer for Good Reason (as each such term is defined in the Severance Agreements). Additionally, the Severance Agreements provide for (a) a pro rata bonus in the year of termination, (b) continued vesting during the Severance Period of unvested Stock Options, (c) exercisability of vested Stock Options and Stock Options that vest during the Severance Period for the shorter of the remaining exercise term or the length of the Severance Period, (d) accelerated vesting during the Severance Period of Restricted Stock that is not performance-based, on a monthly pro rata basis determined from the date of grant to the end of the Severance Period, (e) continued vesting during the Severance Period of performance-based Restricted Stock for which performance targets are achieved and a Vesting Start Date (as defined in the award agreement) is established prior to or during the Severance Period, and (f) continued accrual during the Severance Period of credited service under the 2002 Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. Mr. Morgan's Severance Agreement also provides that the Matching and Supplemental Subaccounts under the Supplemental Deferred Savings Plan will become 100% vested and nonforfeitable as of the Executive's termination date and will be distributed from the Plan at the end of the Severance Period.

The Severance Agreement for Mr. Heagle provides for (a) a monthly severance payment providing an amount equal to an annualized payment of $350,000 for the first 12 months, $275,000 for the second 12 months, $200,000 for the third 12 months, and $100,000 for the final 12 months, (b) continuation of healthcare, life insurance, and long-term disability coverage, and (c) outplacement services, each for a severance period equal to the lesser of (i) 48 months, (ii) the number of whole months from the termination date until Mr. Heagle secures a comparable position at an annual salary of at least $200,000, or (iii) the number of whole months from the termination date to his 65th birthday (but in no event less than six months), in the event the executive's employment is terminated by the Corporation, other than voluntary termination or termination for Cause (as such term is defined in the Severance Agreement). Additionally, Mr. Heagle's Severance Agreement provides for a pro rata bonus in the year of termination and immediate vesting as of the termination date of performance-based Restricted Stock for which performance targets have been achieved and a Vesting Start Date (as defined in the award agreement) is established prior to the termination date.

The Severance Agreements for the remaining named executive officers provide for (a) monthly severance payments in an amount equal to the executive's then current base salary rate, (b) continuation of healthcare, life insurance, and long-term disability coverage, and (c) outplacement services, each for the severance period of 18 months in the event the executive's employment is terminated by the Corporation, other than voluntary termination or termination for Cause (as such term is defined in the Severance Agreement). Additionally, the Severance Agreements provide for a pro rata bonus in the year of termination and the vesting of restricted stock as provided in the related award agreements.

The Severance Agreements also contain restrictive covenants with respect to confidentiality, non-solicitation, and non-competition, and are subject to the execution of a release. The Corporation will pay reasonable legal fees and related expenses incurred by the executives in significantly successful enforcements of their rights under the Severance Agreements. The Severance Agreements, which supersede and replace the severance benefits provided in the employment agreements of the executives who have such agreements, are effective for a rolling two-year term, which will automatically extend each day for an additional day unless terminated by either party, in which case they will continue for two years after the notice of termination, except that Mr. Heagle's Severance Agreement is effective for the period January 5, 2004 through July 15, 2010.

Table of Contents

The Corporation also has Severance Protection Agreements with each of the named executive officers. The Board intends for the Severance Protection Agreements to provide the named executive officers some measure of security against the possibility of employment loss that may result following a Change in Control of the Corporation in order that they may devote their energies to meeting the business objectives and needs of the Corporation and its stockholders.

The Severance Protection Agreements were effective for an initial term of two years ending on November 30, 2003, and automatically extend for one year at the end of each year unless terminated by either party. However, the term of the Severance Protection Agreements will not expire during a Threatened Change in Control Period (as defined in the Severance Protection Agreements) or prior to the expiration of 24 months following a Change in Control. If the employment of the named executive officer is terminated within 24 months following a Change in Control or in certain other instances in connection with a Change in Control (1) by the Corporation other than for Cause or Disability or (2) by the officer for Good Reason (as each term is defined in the Severance Protection Agreements), the officer will be entitled to receive (a) a pro rata bonus for the year of termination, (b) a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the sum of his base salary and bonus (in each case at least equal to his base salary and bonus prior to a Change in Control), subject to certain adjustments, (c) continuation of life insurance, disability, medical, dental, and hospitalization benefits for a period of up to 24 months, and (d) a lump sum cash payment reflecting certain retirement benefits he would have been entitled to receive had he remained employed by the Corporation for an additional two years and a reduced requirement for early retirement benefits. Additionally, all restrictions on any outstanding incentive awards will lapse and become fully vested, all outstanding stock options will become fully vested and immediately exercisable, and the Corporation will be required to purchase for cash, on demand, at the then per-share fair market value, any shares of unrestricted stock and shares purchased upon exercise of options.

Each Severance Protection Agreement provides that the Corporation shall make an additional “gross-up payment” to each officer to offset fully the effect of any excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code, on any payment made to him arising out of or in connection with his employment. In addition, the Corporation will pay all legal fees and related expenses incurred by the officer arising out of his employment or termination of employment if, in general, the circumstances for which he has retained legal counsel occurred on or after a Change in Control.

A “Change in Control” includes (1) the acquisition (other than from the Corporation) by any “person” (as that term is used for purposes of Sections 13(d) or 14(d) of the Exchange Act) other than a trustee of an employee benefit plan maintained by the Corporation or certain related entities of beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Corporation’s then outstanding voting securities, (2) a change in more than one-third of the members of the Board who were either members as of December 1, 2001 or were nominated or elected by a vote of two-thirds of those members or members so approved, or (3) a merger or consolidation involving the Corporation if the stockholders of the Corporation immediately before such merger or consolidation do not, as a result of such merger or consolidation, own, directly or indirectly, more than seventy percent (70%) of the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of the Corporation resulting from such merger or consolidation in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of the combined voting power of the voting securities of the Corporation outstanding immediately before such merger or consolidation, or (4) a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation or an agreement for the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation.

Letter agreements issued to Messrs. Nagel, Morgan, Heagle, Honeycutt, and Murphy in conjunction with the Severance Protection Agreements provide that in the event of a Change in Control, each such officer shall receive an annual cash bonus for that fiscal year at least equal to the annual cash bonus paid to him in the prior fiscal year, if he remains in the employ of the Corporation for the full fiscal year. Each letter agreement has an initial term of 48 months and is subject to an automatic one-year extension after each year unless terminated by the Corporation, but in no event will the term expire following a Change in Control until the Corporation’s obligations as set forth therein have been satisfied.

Pension and Supplemental Retirement Benefits

Effective December 31, 2002, accrual of additional benefits under the Corporation's qualified defined benefit retirement plan ("Pension Plan") that includes certain executive officers was frozen. The approximate annual pension benefit payable to covered named executive officers upon retirement at age 65 is $3,432 for Mr. Heagle, and $25,536 for Mr. Murphy.

Effective January 1, 2003, the Corporation implemented the Acuity Brands, Inc. 2002 Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("2002 SERP") that provides an annual benefit equal to 1.6% of average base salary and bonus (using the highest three consecutive years of remuneration out of the ten years preceding an executive's retirement) multiplied by years of service as an executive officer of the Corporation up to a maximum of 10 years. Benefits are generally payable for a 15-year period following Retirement (as defined in the 2002 SERP) subject to such alternative forms of payment as may be determined by the Corporation. All current executive officers are eligible for the 2002 SERP and have waived their benefits, if any, under the Acuity Brands, Inc. Supplemental Retirement Plan for Executives ("Old SERP"), as amended. The frozen Pension Plan and 2002 SERP provide a lesser retirement benefit for some executives than the Pension Plan and Old SERP. Consequently, Mr. Nagel, Mr. Murphy, and one other executive officer are receiving contributions to a deferred compensation plan to make them whole for the projected shortfall in benefits. The approximate remaining average annual makeup payment to age 60 is $37,500 for Mr. Nagel and $44,350 for Mr. Murphy.

The following table shows the estimated aggregate annual benefits payable to a covered participant at the normal retirement age of 60 under the 2002 SERP. Benefit amounts shown are determined for a maximum of 10 years of service as an executive officer under the 2002 SERP and do not increase with additional years of service. The remuneration specified in the table below consists of salary and annual incentive bonus.

(1) The table above is based on 120% of the 2005 compensation of Mr. Nagel.

The salary and annual bonus covered by the 2002 SERP for each of the named executive officers substantially correspond to the form of compensation disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table. The years of credited service for each of the following named executive officers as of August 31, 2005 were: Mr. Nagel, 4 years; Mr. Morgan, 4 years; Mr. Heagle, 5 years; Mr. Honeycutt, 4 years, and Mr. Murphy, 5 years.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of nonemployee directors that are independent under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Committee is responsible for evaluating the performance of management and for reviewing matters pertaining to the selection, development, and compensation of management, including: recommending the salary payable to the Chief Executive Officer, subject to approval by the full Board; setting the salary payable to each of the other executive officers of the Corporation; administering annual bonuses under the Management Compensation and Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"); and granting awards under the Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “Long-Term Plan”), subject to ratification of certain matters thereunder by the full Board. The Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to any proposed awards to executive officers under any other compensation plan, benefit plan, or perquisite.

Following is a discussion of the compensation policies for the Corporation’s executive officers, the executive officers’ compensation program for the last fiscal year, and the Chief Executive Officer’s compensation for the last fiscal year.

Compensation Policies for Executive Officers

For the 2005 fiscal year, the principal compensation components for executive officers were base salary, bonus awards under the Incentive Plan, and time-vesting restricted stock granted under the Long-Term Plan. The Chief Executive Officer did not receive such an award in 2005, and the time-vesting restricted stock awards to other executive officers were calibrated to reflect the Committee’s assessment of the Company’s financial performance in fiscal year 2004 and the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. For 2005, the Committee approved a new long-term incentive delivery platform that links the pool of equity available for annual grants to all eligible employees (including executive officers) to pre-established corporate financial performance targets. Incentive awards are generally granted on an annual basis. Salary adjustments are made annually as merited or on promotion to a position of increased responsibilities.

The Committee administers the Corporation’s compensation policy to provide a relationship between an executive’s compensation, particularly performance-based annual and long-term incentive compensation, and the creation of market value for stockholders. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee addresses the competitive positioning and pay mix needed to attract and retain qualified executives who adhere to the Company’s performance-based philosophy. The Committee reviews the compensation of each executive officer, considering competitive compensation information provided by an independent compensation consultant, and the Chief Executive Officer’s performance review and recommendation for each other executive officer. Total direct compensation (base salary plus annual and long-term incentives) is targeted at between the 50th and 75th percentiles, with an emphasis on pay for performance under the annual and long-term incentive components. The Company’s compensation philosophy is to provide total direct compensation that exceeds competitive market levels only when the Company’s financial performance is above market expectations. The competitive compensation information utilized by the Committee is for positions of comparable responsibilities with comparably-sized manufacturing companies, which are representative of the companies with whom the Corporation competes for executive talent. These companies are not necessarily the same as those included in the indices to which the Corporation is compared in the performance graph in this proxy statement.

As one of the factors in compensation matters, the Committee considers the anticipated tax treatment to the Corporation and to the executives of various payments and benefits. Based on compensation arrangements currently in place, the Committee does not reasonably anticipate that the compensation of any executive officer for fiscal years 2005 or 2006 will be subject to the $1 million deductibility limitation of Section 162(m) of the Code. The Committee expects to retain the deductibility of compensation pursuant to Section 162(m), but reserves the right to provide non-deductible compensation if it determines that such action is in the best interests of the Corporation and its stockholders.

Executive Officers’ 2005 Compensation

The salary for fiscal 2005 of each executive officer (other than the Chief Executive Officer, discussed below) was based on a review of competitive compensation data at the 50th and 75th percentile levels and also considered the executive’s performance, experience, abilities, and expected future contributions. Salaries generally fell within competitive range of market 50th percentile levels, taking into account relative levels of experience and scope of responsibility. A common review date of October 1 was previously established for all executives under the implementation of the Corporation’s Leadership Development Program. The salaries for named executive officers presented in the “Summary Compensation Table” are a pro rata blend of the salary levels in effect throughout the year.

Table of Contents

Bonuses for fiscal 2005 under the Incentive Plan were designed to provide competitive total cash compensation at between the 50th and 75th percentiles, subject to achievement of the Corporation's target performance objectives. A target bonus amount, stated as a percentage of base salary, was determined for each executive officer and was subject to the application of negative discretion by the Committee. The bonus was based on achievement of performance targets consisting of: (1) the Corporation's objectives for per-share earnings, consolidated EBIT margin (margin on consolidated earnings before interest and taxes), and net debt reduction (cash flow sufficient for targeted debt reduction) for headquarters-based executive officers; or (2) business unit performance measures (operating profit, operating profit margin, and cash flow) for executive officers serving as business unit presidents. The bonus amount increased or decreased in relationship to the Company's financial performance against the specified measures, and no bonus would have been payable (other than possible discretionary bonuses) if financial performance was below a specified threshold level. The percentages and performance measures were established by the Committee and ratified by the Board of Directors early in the fiscal year and were intended to drive business and individual performance resulting in market appreciation for shareholders.

Under the Plan Rules (as defined in the Incentive Plan) approved for fiscal 2005 by the Committee, the Corporation's net debt reduction of $79 million exceeded the maximum performance levels specified for that performance measure for the payment of financial performance bonuses to headquarters-based executive officers of the Corporation. After the Committee's application of negative discretion, which took into account the Company's below-threshold levels of achievement of the other financial performance measures and each executive's personal performance against individual goals, the financial performance achieved under the Plan Rules resulted in payments ranging from 32.3% to 41.1% of base salary for headquarters-based executive officers.

Acuity Brands Lighting ("ABL") achieved financial results above the specified target performance level for the cash flow performance measure described above. Based on ABL's achievement of cash flow under the Plan Rules and the Committee's assessment of personal performance, Mr. Honeycutt received a bonus of 32.1% of his base salary.

Acuity Specialty Products Group ("ASP") achieved financial results between the threshold and maximum specified performance levels for all of the financial performance measures described above. Based on ASP's achievement of all performance measures under the Plan Rules and the Committee's assessment of personal performance, Mr. Heagle received a bonus of 39.4% of his base salary.

Although the bonuses for Messrs. Honeycutt and Heagle included discretionary amounts, those amounts are expected to be tax deductible within the parameters of Code Section 162(m).

The long-term incentive component of executive officers' compensation for fiscal 2004 was comprised of four-year, time-vesting restricted stock awarded under the Long-Term Plan. The awards provide longer-term compensation opportunities contingent upon the Corporation's long-term performance and the generation of increased market value of its shares for both executives and stockholders. Long-term awards granted to executive officers in fiscal 2005 were based on competitive market data, the Committee's assessment of the Company's fiscal 2004 financial performance, and recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Morgan received a stock option for 160,000 shares in connection with his election as Executive Vice President of the Corporation and President and Chief Executive Officer of Acuity Lighting Group, Inc., effective July 29, 2005. The shares vest in four equal annual installments beginning one-year from the grant date.

In December 2002, executive officers were awarded performance-based restricted stock under the Long-Term Plan. One-fourth of the restricted shares vested in November 2004 based on the achievement of related performance targets.

In connection with the spin-off of the Corporation from NSI in November 2001, consistent with the treatment accorded other stockholders, executive officers received a share of Acuity Brands restricted stock for each share held of NSI restricted stock under an October 2000 award for which performance targets had been achieved. One-fourth of the resulting Acuity Brands restricted shares vested in January 2005. The remainder of the October 2000 performance-based awards was converted to Acuity Brands restricted stock awards of equal value. All related performance targets for those awards have been met, and one-eighth of those shares vested during 2005.

Chief Executive Officer's 2005 Compensation

For the 2005 fiscal year, Mr. Nagel received base salary and a bonus opportunity under the Incentive Plan. His total compensation was based on competitive and merit factors. The Committee was advised by its independent compensation consultant that the aggregate of Mr. Nagel's 2005 base salary and bonus opportunity were in the lower portion of the 25th percentile for comparable positions.

Based on the Corporation's achievement of the maximum net debt reduction under the Plan Rules approved by the Committee at the beginning of the 2005 fiscal year and after the Committee's application of negative discretion, which took into account the level of achievement of the other financial performance measures, the financial performance achieved under the Plan Rules resulted in a bonus payment to Mr. Nagel of 41.7% of his base salary (56% of his target award level) and included no payment for actual achievement of personal performance goals.

Over 42% of Mr. Nagel's compensation opportunity for fiscal 2005 was provided through performance-based bonus and, as a consequence, was directly related to current and long-term performance on behalf of stockholders. Option awards granted to him in prior years further tie his long-term compensation opportunity to appreciation in the market price of the Corporation's stock. Mr. Nagel did not receive a long-term incentive award in fiscal year 2005, in accordance with the provisions of his employment agreement.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The directors serving on the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005 were Ray M. Robinson, Chairman, Peter C. Browning, Jay M. Davis, and Julia B. North. None of these individuals are or ever have been officers or employees of the Corporation. During the 2005 fiscal year, no executive officer of the Corporation served as a director of any corporation for which any of these individuals served as an executive officer, and there were no other compensation committee interlocks with the companies with which these individuals or the Corporation's other directors are affiliated.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF THE CORPORATION'S SECURITIES

The following table sets forth information concerning beneficial ownership of the Corporation's common stock as of November 14, 2005, unless otherwise indicated, by each of the directors and nominees for director, by each of the named executive officers, by all directors and executive officers of the Corporation as a group, and by beneficial owners of more than five percent of the Corporation's common stock.

The executive officers of the Corporation became subject to a share ownership requirement in 2004 and have been subject to a share retention requirement since January 2003. The share ownership requirement provides that, over a four-year period, the chief executive officer will attain ownership of the Corporation's common stock valued at four times his annual base salary and that the other named executive officers will attain ownership in the Corporation's common stock valued at three times their annual base salaries. The valuation of the Corporation's stock held by executive officers is based on the closing price of the Corporation's stock on the New York Stock Exchange as of any valuation date. Restricted stock that is vesting and share units held in the Supplemental Deferred Savings Plan are considered for purposes of compliance with the Corporation's share ownership requirement. Until an executive officer has met and maintains the requisite share ownership, he is subject to the share retention requirement. The share retention requirement specifies the percentage of shares that must be retained by an executive officer from shares acquired under the Long-Term Incentive Plan through the exercise of stock options or the vesting of restricted stock or performance awards. The calculation gives credit for shares equivalent in value to exercise costs and withholding taxes. The Compensation Committee has indicated that adherence to the ownership and retention requirements will be considered when grants and awards are made under the Long-Term Incentive Plan.

Nonemployee directors are subject to a share ownership requirement that requires each nonemployee director to attain ownership in the Corporation's common stock valued at two times their expected annual fee. For purposes of this requirement, share units held in the Nonemployee Director's Deferred Stock Unit Plan are considered. The nonemployee directors have until the later of December 2007 or four years from their election to satisfy the share ownership requirement.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the percentage change in cumulative total stockholders' return on the Corporation's common stock with (a) the S&P Smallcap 600 Index and (b) the Russell 2000 Index for the period from December 3, 2001 (the date the Corporation's stock first traded other than on a when-issued basis) through August 31, 2005. The graph assumes an initial investment of $100 at the closing price on December 3, 2001 and assumes all dividends were reinvested. The Corporation has presented the Russell 2000 Index, in lieu of an industry index or peer group, because the Corporation believes there is no published index or peer group that adequately compares to the Corporation's business segments. Except for the initial measurement date (December 3, 2001), the figures for the chart and graph set forth below have been calculated based on the closing prices on the last trading day on the New York Stock Exchange for each month indicated.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), requires the Corporation’s directors and officers, as well as any persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the Corporation’s common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Corporation’s stock with the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange, and the Corporation. Based on a review of the forms received by the Corporation during or with respect to the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, and written representations from certain reporting persons that no Form 5 reports were required for those persons, the Corporation believes that all required Section 16(a) filings were made on a timely basis, except that, in November 2004, due to an administrative error in each instance, Mr. Honeycutt reported late the sale of 6,676 shares and Mr. Parham reported late the sale of 468 shares. Both transactions were reported within 30 days of their respective event dates.

ITEM 2 — RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF THE INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

At the annual meeting, a proposal will be presented to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP (“E&Y”) as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Corporation’s financial statements for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2006. E&Y has performed this function for the Corporation since April 2002. One or more representatives of E&Y are expected to be present at the annual meeting and will be afforded the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and to respond to appropriate stockholder questions. Information regarding fees paid to E&Y during fiscal year 2005 is set out below in “Fees Billed by Independent Auditors.”

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR ITEM 2, RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE CORPORATION’S INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors previously adopted a written charter to set forth the Audit Committee’s responsibilities. The charter is reviewed annually and amended as necessary to comply with new regulatory requirements. A copy of the Corporation’s Audit Committee charter, which is included in the Statement of Responsibilities of Committees of the Board, is available on the Corporation’s website at www.acuitybrands.com under the heading, “Corporate Governance.” The Audit Committee is comprised solely of independent directors, as such term is defined by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

As required by the charter, the Audit Committee reviewed the Corporation’s audited financial statements and met with management, as well as with E&Y (with and without management present), to (1) discuss the financial statements, (2) discuss their evaluations of the Corporation’s internal controls over financial reporting, and (3) discuss their knowledge of any fraud, whether or not material, that involved management or other employees who had a significant role in the Corporation’s internal controls.

The Audit Committee received from E&Y the required written disclosures and the letter from E&Y regarding their independence and the report regarding the results of their integrated audit. In connection with its review of the financial statements and the auditors’ required communications and reports, the members of the Audit Committee discussed with a representative of E&Y their independence, as well as the following:

- the auditors’ responsibilities in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards;
- the initial selection of, and whether there were any changes in, significant accounting policies or their application;
- all material alternative accounting treatments under U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles;
- other information in documents containing audited financial statements;

Table of Contents

- management's judgments and accounting estimates;
- whether there were any significant audit adjustments;
- whether there were any disagreements with management;
- whether there was any consultation with other accountants;
- whether there were any major issues discussed with management prior to the auditors' retention;
- whether the auditors encountered any difficulties in performing the audit; and
- the auditor's judgments about the quality of the Corporation's accounting policies.

Based on its discussions with management and the Corporation's independent registered public accounting firm referenced above, the Audit Committee did not become aware of any material misstatements or omissions in the financial statements. Accordingly, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005 for filing with the SEC.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no other business to be transacted, but if any other matters do come before the meeting, the persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy, or their substitutes, will vote or act with respect to them in accordance with their best judgment.

NEXT ANNUAL MEETING — STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If a stockholder wishes to have a proposal considered for inclusion in the Corporation’s proxy solicitation materials in connection with the next annual meeting of stockholders, the proposal must comply with the SEC’s proxy rules, be stated in writing, and be submitted on or before July 23, 2006, to the Corporation at its principal executive offices at 1170 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 2400, Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Attention: Corporate Secretary. All such proposals should be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested.

The Corporation’s By-Laws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholder proposals to be brought before any annual meeting of stockholders and for nominations by stockholders of candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting. Subject to any other applicable requirements, including, without limitation, Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, nominations of persons for election to the board of directors and the proposal of business to be transacted by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders by any stockholder of record of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record at the time of the giving of notice for the annual meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has complied with the Corporation’s notice procedures.

For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, (i) the stockholder must have given timely notice in writing to the Corporation’s Secretary, (ii) such business must be a proper matter for stockholder action under the Delaware General Corporation Law, (iii) if the stockholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf any such proposal or nomination is made, has provided the Corporation with a Solicitation Notice (as defined below), such stockholder or beneficial owner must, in the case of a proposal, have delivered a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation’s voting shares required under applicable law to carry any such proposal, or, in the case of a nomination or nominations, have delivered a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of a percentage of the Corporation’s voting shares reasonably believed by such stockholder or beneficial holder to be sufficient to elect the nominee or nominees proposed to be nominated by such stockholder, and must, in either case, have included in such materials the Solicitation Notice, and (iv) if no Solicitation Notice relating to the proposal has been timely provided, the stockholder or beneficial owner proposing such business or nomination must not have solicited a number of proxies sufficient to have required the delivery of such a Solicitation Notice.

To be timely, a stockholder’s notice must be delivered to the Corporation’s Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 45 or more than 75 days prior to the first anniversary of the date on which the Corporation first mailed its proxy materials for the preceding year’s annual meeting of stockholders (the “Anniversary”). However, if the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to or delayed by more than 30 days after the anniversary of the preceding year’s annual meeting, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not later than the close of business on the later of (i) the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or (ii) the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

A stockholder's notice must set forth (i) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director, all information relating to such person as would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of such nominees as directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act and such person's written consent to serve as a director if elected; (ii) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of such business, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; (iii) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (A) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, (B) the class and number of shares of the Corporation that are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner, and (C) whether either such stockholder or beneficial owner intends to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of, in the case of a proposal, at least the percentage of the Corporation's voting shares required under applicable law to carry the proposal or, in the case of a nomination or nominations, a sufficient number of holders of the Corporation's voting shares to elect such nominee or nominees (an affirmative statement of such intent).

In the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least 55 days prior to the Anniversary, a stockholder's notice required by the Corporation's By-Laws also will be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it is delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

The preceding five paragraphs are intended to summarize the applicable By-Laws of the Corporation. These summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to those By-Laws, which are available on the Corporation's website at www.acuitybrands.com under "Corporate Governance."

SELECTION OF THE BOARD

6) Mix of Management and Independent Directors

A majority of the members of the Board must be independent directors. The Board will annually determine whether each director has no material relationship with the Company and is thereby deemed to be independent, based on the following standards and such additional criteria as the Board considers appropriate at that time:

(a) the director is not and was not during the preceding three years an employee of the Company (other than any past service as an interim Chairman of the Board or Chief Executive Officer) and no immediate family member of the director is or was an executive officer of the Company within the preceding three years;

(b) neither the director nor an immediate family member of the director receives or received within any twelve-month period within the preceding three years more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than: (i) director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided the deferred compensation was not contingent in any way on continued service); (ii) any compensation received by a director for former service as an interim Chairman of the Board or Chief Executive Officer; and (iii) any compensation received by an immediate family member for service as a non-executive employee of the Company.

(c) neither the director nor an immediate family member of the director is or was within the preceding three years affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by an internal or external auditor serving the Company currently or within the preceding three years;

(d) neither the director nor an immediate family member of the director is or was within the preceding three years employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company’s present executives currently serve or served Within the preceding three years on that company’s compensation committee; and

(e) the director is not an executive officer or an employee, and no immediate family member of the director is an executive officer, of a company that, within the preceding three fiscal years of that company, made payments to or received payments from the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeded the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other company’s consolidated gross revenues.

For purposes of the foregoing standards, (a) “immediate family member” includes a person’s spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law, sons and daughters-in-law, brothers and sisters-in-law, and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares such person’s home and (b) the “company” includes any parent or subsidiary in a consolidated group with the company.
